

SINGAPORE

Best Broker

"This recognition reflects what we have always stood for at Lockton — putting our clients' interests first and having the independence to truly advocate for them. As we celebrate 50 years in Singapore, we are proud of the relationships and trust we have built over the decades, while remaining focused on what comes next. Our people are at the heart of that journey, and this award is a recognition of their commitment to delivering exceptional outcomes for our clients."

Deven Lim , CEO, Lockton Singapore

Lockton Singapore is named Best Broker – Singapore at the InsuranceAsia News Country Awards for Excellence 2026, recognizing its continued focus on client advocacy, specialist expertise, and delivering meaningful outcomes in an increasingly complex risk environment. As an independent insurance broker, Lockton Singapore is able to act in clients' best interests, bringing together specialist expertise, market insight, and global capabilities to develop solutions that respond to the risks businesses face today.

This client-first approach has become increasingly important to navigate a rapidly evolving risk landscape. Lockton Singapore works closely with the clients to understand their businesses, identify emerging challenges and develop risk strategies that go beyond traditional insurance placement.

Lockton Singapore's specialist model is underpinned by deep technical expertise and access to Lockton's global network of more than 150 offices. Enabling the team to combine local market knowledge with international capabilities, helping clients navigate interconnected risks across markets and industries.

Lockton Singapore has also continued to strengthen its role as a strategic risk partner through knowledge sharing and market engagement, convening clients, insurers and industry specialists to discuss the issues shaping resilience and risk. These conversations help organisations make better-informed decisions in areas with complex exposures.

This approach reflects how Lockton Singapore partners with clients across sectors, drawing on specialists and global market access to support businesses facing complex insurance and risk management challenges.

The recognition comes at a significant moment, as Lockton Singapore celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2026. Over five decades, the firm has built deep relationships and local expertise across the market. Its independent model continues to give the business the freedom to challenge convention and pursue better outcomes for clients.

Ultimately, this award reflects the people behind the business. Lockton Singapore's continued growth is driven by Associates who combine technical expertise with a deep understanding of their clients and a willingness to advocate for them.

After 50 years in Singapore, Lockton remains independent by choice and client-first by conviction.
